

Floating Manor

Prince Pippin can't leave his manor without the help of his flying horse, Flick. Who have you helped lately?

Quest: be a hero. Help someone who needs it. (Hint: chores count.)

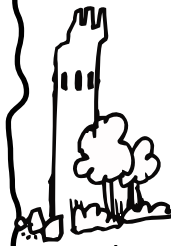

Singleton Island

Singleton Island is hosting its very first medieval fashion show. What will you wear?

Quest: Make yourself a medieval hat and wear it to the library.

Tumbledown Tower

Lady Laverne keeps herself busy with jokes, acrobatics and magic tricks because she hates doing housework.

Quest: learn a trick and show it to a librarian.

YE QUIZZICAL QUESTS

Even though mosquitoes buzz and strange vapors coil around your ankles there, the Foetid Fen is still a great place to look up and see the stars.

Quest: Make a wish on the first star you see and say:

"Star light, star bright
First star I see tonight.
I wish I may, I wish I might
Have the wish I wish tonight."

Then make a wish!

Foetid Fen

Wobbly Woods

Summer is the perfect time to do something outdoors. Just beware of falling trees!

Quest: Go on a "Dragon Hunt" or other outdoor adventure.

People all over the world explore mountains to find precious metals and gemstones. Shriek's Peaks are home to many unusual specimens.

Quest: discover a new gemstone (rock). Tape or glue it to a piece of cardboard marked with the name you've given it. Include a brief description of its properties, if you wish. Bring it to the library.

Shriek's Peaks

Lonely Rock

Once upon a time, a wise King named Kavin placed his throne atop a giant rock. From there he could look around and see his whole kingdom.

Quest: have a photo of yourself taken on a throne.

Sir Kirwin, the burly lord of Kap's Keep, loves trying out new and exotic foods.

Quest: make a "daring" food or "dreamy" desert and enjoy it with your family.

Kap's Keep